Bakke Land Posten

Cleng Peerson Lodge 1-645

Vol 10. No. 1

Fra presidenten

It is an honor to serve as your President for the coming year, along with a group of dedicated Lodge Officers. We plan to include educational and cultural activities as part of our regular social meetings in order to promote our Norwegian Heritage. I look forward to active participation from all current members and welcome the addition of new members during the year of 2005.

— Phil Erickson

MARCH MEETING

Since the March meeting will be four days before St. Patrick's Day, the theme of our meeting will be the historic and cultural relationship between the Norwegians and Irish.

Kari Lie, Norwegian Language Professor at the University of Texas, awards Nick Olen, undergraduate student in Norwegian, a scholarship check from the Cleng Peerson Lodge of Sons of Norway.

The Vikings raided Ireland, but they also established several of Ireland's major cities and had a profound impact on the Irish culture. Norwegians celebrate St. Patrick's Day in both Ireland and Norway. This topic will depart from our usual practice of focusing on a uniquely Norwegian custom and will demonstrate the fact that Norwegians interact with other cultures.

Join us in March!

Hurra for deg som fyller ditt år!

Ja, deg vil vi gratulere!

Alle i ring omkring deg vi står,

og se, nå vil vi marsjere,

bukke, nikke, neie, snu oss omkring,

danse så for deg med hopp og sprett og spring,

ønske deg av hjertet alle gode ting

og si meg så, hva vil du mere? Gratulere!

Litt på norsk...

Egen kanal for folkemusikk

I desember begynte NRK å kringkaste "Alltid folkemusikk" 24 timer i døgnet. Den nye radiokanalen er digital og bygd over samme lest som kanalfatteren "Alltid Klassisk". All musikk er altså lagt inn på forhånd, og hvem som spiller eller hva som blir spilt får man vite gjennom tekst og foto.

Kanalen vil bare bli distribuert via Nettradio og digital radio, dab. Journalist Leiv Solberg, som åpnet kanalen, forklarer delvis satsningen med at det ikke lenger er slik at bare de unge vet hvordan Internett og nettradio fungerer. Kanalen skal være "for norsk folkemusikk av alle datoer og avskygninger", skriver NRK på sine nettsider.

NRK har en unik samling av folkemusikk så langt tilbake som til 1934 og frem til i dag i sine arkiver som de nå håper at på denne måten vil bli tilgjengelig for flere. For å høre på "Alltid Folkemusikk" skriv inn www.nrk.no/kanal.nrk_alltid_folkemusikk. Under første artikkelen, klikk på "Hør Alltid Folkemusikk direkte" og så, på toppen av den neste nett side, klikk på "Hør På Nett radio."

A Little in English...

Own Channel For Folk Music

In December 2004, NRK began broadcasting "Folk music all the time" 24 hours a day. The new radio channel is digital and is built similarly to "Classical music all the time" All music is recorded beforehand and information on who is playing or what is being played can be determined through text and photos.

The channel is distributed via net radio and digital radio. Journalist Leiv Solberg, who started the channel, partly explains the launch by saying it is no longer only the youth who know how the Internet and net radio work. The channel is "for Norwegian folk music from all eras and nuances," writes NRK on its website. NRK has a unique collection of folk music as far back as 1934 and up to today in its archives, which it now hopes will, in this way, be available to more people.

To hear the folk music channel, log on to www.nrk.no/kanal.nrk_alltid_folkemusikk. In the first article, click on "Hør Alltid Folkemusikk direkte" and then at the top of the next page, click on "Hør På Nettradio."
